

2008 Colorado Science and Engineering Fair

Congratulations to the students who represented Blevins JHS at the Colorado Science and Engineering Fair. The following students received recognition for their outstanding projects:

Senior Division:

Amelia Eads received an Honorable Mention for her project in the Behavioral & Social Sciences

Delani Miller received an Honorable Mention for her project in the Plant Sciences

Nikki Mayer received a $75 dollar cash prize and an achievement medal from the Association for Women Geoscientists

Kalli Davis and Amelia Eads received all expense paid trips to compete at the International Science and Engineering Fair in Atlanta, Georgia from the Longs Peak Science and Engineering Fair.

Junior Division:

Rennie Winkelman received an Honorable Mention for the Animal Sciences

Kelly Lynch received an Honorable Mention in Microbiology

Ellery Goeltzenleuchter received 1st place in Microbiology, a $125 dollar cash prize and a nomination to enter the Society for Science & the Public Health competition.