

Olander PTO Minutes

Date: April 3, 2007

1. Treasurer Report

- $9,990 in checking and $5, 864 in savings
- Pump it Up netted $427, better than predicted. SOAR's expenses are projected to be relatively low, compared to last year's. OD's is not expected to be a money maker, but fun.

2. Volunteer System

- Permanent Teal ID badges have replaced the yellow temporary ones, signaling that the wearer is a registered PSD volunteer. Registration forms are available at the volunteer sign-in station in the office. A deadline will be set to permit only those who are pre-registered and approved to volunteer in the school.

3. S.O.A.R.

- Deadline was extended to increase participation. Prizes will go to all who joined in.
- Reading week is April 9-15, with student out of school that Friday. Teachers will receive reusable posters to record classroom reading time.
- Thoughts for higher participation next year included having a kick-off assembly and starting the process earlier in the year.

4. Spring Family Fun Events

- Skating at O.D.'s, Friday, April 20th, 6-8pm. Student Council to sell glow sticks and necklaces. Volunteers needed for running karaoke machine and Domino's pizza sales.
- Rockies baseball tickets through Rocky Mountain High has been dropped due to lack of interest.

5. Spring Book Fair

- April 16-20, Olander Media Center. Volunteer recruitment is underway.
- Spring's book fair is buy one get one free. Not a money maker, but this could be revised if we need more funds in the future.

6. Earth Day

- Recycling bags to go out in Friday folders on April 20 through Cartridges for Kids. They can be returned with ink cartridges, cell phones, etc., to be recycled.

