

JIBA - STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The role of student councils shall be advisory in nature. Councils shall be encouraged to make known their opinions with respect to curriculum, school rules and organization, use of facilities, school activities, and other areas of concern.

The principal and student council sponsor shall develop rules and guidelines for the operation of the student government. The principal shall be encouraged to delegate decision making authority to the students in such areas as student clubs and organizations, awards, social activities, community projects, and student body organization and election. All activities and/or organizations shall be subject to ratification by the principal or student council sponsor.
