Organization	Purpose	Meeting Information	Student Contact Information	Employee Monitor
American Sign Language	The American Foreign Sign Language Club will provide the opportunity to learn a new language and more about sign language in the community. It will allow students to learn more about an inclusive society and help to further inclusion within Poudre. It's a great opportunity to make new friends, get involved, and participate in fun and engaging activities.	Mondays during lunch Room 198	Audrey Pursley audreyc.pursley@gmail.com 970.893.1037	Lisa Mahler
Community Cares	We want to help people who are less fortunate by using our resources and taking advantage of our fortunes in order to help others. We will try to partner with Fort Collins Rescue Mission and Crossroads Safehouse.	Thursdays during lunch Ms. Gutierrez Room	Josephine Ulle ulleclementine@gmail.com 720.653.1041	Stephanie Gutierrez
Computational Linguistics Club	Computational Linguistics Club is dedicated to studying language at a deeper level, helping students understand the structure of human communication from sounds to semantics. Students will collaborate on linguistic puzzles that enhance their ability to identify patterns in foreign languages, and they will learn about the prospects of using modern technology and logic to process language learning in new ways.	Wednesdays after school Room 106	Andrew Lewis andrewjasper07@gmail.com	Chris Neal
FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes)	To create a community of student athletes who want to know more about Jesus.	Thursdays during lunch Room 414	Sarah Seitz s.js2006@icloud.com 970.692.7502	Barret Golyer

Poudre High School Student-Led Organizations

Feminist Club	Feminist Club will host various events and fundraisers. Some of these include raising money for breast cancer research and feminist library books. Our largest event is also a period product drive so that people in our community can receive the products they need.	Thursdays during lunch Room 316-Mrs. Sydow's room	Avery Leman avhabrle@gmail.com 970.232.8675	Brenna Sydow
Future Doctors Without Borders	Doctors Without Borders is an international organization that provides access to healthcare to unreached communities across the globe. Future Doctors Without Borders are dedicated high school students who help fundraise for the missions. At Poudre High School, FDWB would host biannual fundraisers.	Wednesdays after school Room 316	Alivia Anderson 720.471.1565	Brenna Sydow
International Club	The purpose of an International Club in school is to promote cultural awareness, diversity and global understanding among students. It provides a space where students from various cultural backgrounds can share their traditions, languages, and experiences. With a diverse students body from various international backgrounds like exchange students and many more students, this would enrich the school community and give students the opportunity to gain a broader understanding of global perspectives. This club will try to organize events, cultural exchange programs and discussions that encourage cross cultural friendships and broaden students worldview.	Wednesdays at lunch Library	Samiha Meshbah samihasarar01@gmail.com 970.792.7141	Jonathan Zimmerman
Pottery Club	Get students together to explore a new art form using clay, planning to interact with a fundraiser to raise money for the food bank using art created in the club.	Thursdays during lunch Room 501	Grace Wheeler grrewh@gmail.com	Craig Moyer
