

PSD Spanish Literacy Courses

4911 Spanish Literacy Intro 1 not eligible for high school credit as this is just a 6th grade course

This middle school class is intended for students with good Spanish language comprehension but limited literacy skills. Students will improve their communication and literacy skills of reading and writing. Students gain an amplified vocabulary and enhanced understanding of fundamentals of Spanish grammar. This course addresses the World Language standards of communication, culture, connections and comparisons.

4912A Spanish Literacy 2A not eligible for high school credit until 2B is completed

This middle school version is the first half of the course is intended for students with good Spanish language comprehension but basic literacy skills. Students will improve their communication and literacy skills of reading and writing. Activities include reading and responding to short stories in written and oral presentations and group activities. Students gain an enhanced understanding of fundamentals of Spanish grammar. This course addresses the World Language standards of communication, culture, connections and comparisons.

4912B Spanish Literacy 2B eligible for high school credit

This middle school version is the second half of the course is intended for students with good Spanish language comprehension but basic literacy skills. Students will improve their communication and literacy skills of reading and writing. Activities include reading and responding to short stories in written and oral presentations and group activities. Students gain an enhanced understanding of fundamentals of Spanish grammar. This course addresses the World Language standards of communication, culture, connections and comparisons.

4913 Spanish Literacy 3 eligible for high school credit

This high school course is intended for Spanish-speaking students to improve and enrich literacy skills of reading and writing proficiency. Students receive instruction in reading comprehensions skills and strategies through Spanish literature selections. They also refine and improve skills that allow them to write for a wide range of purposes and a variety of audiences. This course addresses the World Language standards of communication, culture, connections and comparisons.

4914 Spanish Literacy 4 high school credit

This high school course is intended for students with strong Spanish comprehension and literacy skills to communicate by applying a wide range of vocabulary and complex structures. Students interpret, analyze, synthesize, and apply information from a variety of sources and create comprehensible oral and written presentations. They analyze the perspectives and significance of cultural practices to expand and apply knowledge. This course addresses the World Language standards of communication, culture, connections and comparisons.

4915 Spanish Lang Culture 5 high school credit

This high school advanced course is intended for Spanish language learners. The course explores Spanish speaking cultures and literature in a historical-contemporary setting. Diverse reading selections are intertwined with grammar and vocabulary to improve literacy skills and linguistic abilities. Students that have demonstrated proficiency by completion of a minimum of Spanish level 4 or the Spanish Literacy 4 course, and or teacher approval.